

CONTENTS

Dedication	vii
List of figures	xii
List of tables	xiv
List of editors	xv
List of contributors	xvi
Acknowledgements	xxi
Visual preface	xxii
1 Introduction: cycling societies: innovations, inequalities and governance Dennis Zuev, Katerina Psarikidou and Cosmin Popan	1
PART I
Innovations	17
2 Integrated cycling policy: a framework proposal for a research-connected cycling policy innovation Esther Anaya-Boig	19
3 Smart cycling: meaning, experience and governance Anna Nikolaeva, Marco te Brömmelstroet, Rob Raven and James Ranson	38
4 Equity and design in the smart bikeshare sector Robert Bradshaw	58

x Contents

5	Towards a new stage of institutionalisation? Current transition dynamics in the system of e-bike mobility in China Dennis Zuev	76
6	'Converting motorists': e-bikes experiments and commuting in Greater Copenhagen Oskar Jäger Funk and Jonas Larsen	92
PART II
Inequalities		101
7	Researching cycling inequalities: moving towards more sustainable cycling societies Katerina Psarikidou	103
8	Can a safe cycling city be an inclusive cycling city? Findings on gendered cycling from São Paulo, Brazil Marina Kohler Harkot, Leticia Lindenberg Lemos and Paula Freire Santoro	119
9	Feminine velonomy: women's experiences of bicycle repair and maintenance in France and Australia Margot Abord de Chatillon	137
10	Invisible cyclists? Acknowledging the needs and rights of Disabled cyclists Neil Andrews and Isabelle Clement	156
11	New wilderness mobilities: cycling against climate change, mass extinction and habitat destruction Nicholas A. Scott	163
12	The fine art of cycling: bicycles, modernity and political art Bruce Bennett	180
PART III
Governance		199
13	Understanding cycling regime transition and inequality in the Global South: case study of an Indian megacity Bipashyee Ghosh and Fariya Sharmeen	201

14	Cycling for change? Exploring the role of carbon consciousness among Cape Town's intentional cyclists Gail Jennings	219
15	Algorithmic governance in the gig economy: entrepreneurialism and solidarity among food delivery workers Cosmin Popan	239
16	We need more than plans: a brief analysis of the cycling policy in Belo Horizonte, Brazil Guilherme Tampieri	258
17	Leveraging a design manual to move towards excellence in cycling infrastructure in Colombia Thomas van Laake and Patricia Calderón Peña	262
	Afterword: towards cycling societies: when a crisis has the potential to create a new cycling path dependence Dominic Villeneuve	266
	Index	270