

Contents

	Acknowledgments	xiii
	Authors	xv
	Introduction	xvii
Chapter 1	Individual Preparedness: In Theory and in Practice	1
	Introduction	1
	Communication Science: A Primer	6
	Social Marketing	10
	A Systems Approach to Disaster Preparedness Campaigns	14
	Phase 1: Early Planning	15
	Phase 2: Developing a Campaign Strategy	15
	Phase 3: Implementing and Evaluating the Campaign	16
	Purpose, Goals, and Objectives	16
	Goal 1: Raising Awareness about the Hazard Risk	17
	Goal 2: Guiding Behavior	18
	Goal 3: Warning	20
	Other Risk Communication Goals	23
	Priorities and Goals of Risk Communication Recipients	24
	Seeing the Bigger Picture: Communication as One Component of a Larger Solution	28
	Campaign Requirements	35
	The Dangers of Failed Risk Communication	38
	Conclusion	39
	References	39

Chapter 2	Managing Risk, Emergencies, and Disasters	41
	Introduction	41
	Fundamental Emergency Management Concepts	43
	Risk	43
	Hazard	44
	Vulnerability	44
	Disaster	46
	Safe	48
	The Management of Risk	49
	The Management of Emergencies and Disasters: Emergency Management Functions	51
	Mitigation	51
	Preparedness	52
	Response	52
	Recovery	53
	The Management of Emergencies and Disasters: Emergency Management Structures	54
	The Fire Department	54
	Law Enforcement	56
	Emergency Management	57
	Emergency Medical Services	57
	The Military	58
	Other Emergency Management Resources	59
	Private-Sector Emergency and Risk Management Structures	59
	Governmental Preparedness Actions	61
	Individual and Organizational Preparedness	62
	Jurisdictional Management and Control: Defining Responsibility	63
	What Is Public Emergency Preparedness?	65
	The Advantages of a Trained Public	67
	Conclusion	71
	References	72

Chapter 3	The Campaign—Step 1: Early Planning	73
	Introduction	73
	Define the Problem	75
	Identify and Analyze the Hazard Risk	75
	Define the Target Population	77
	Identify Appropriate Solutions	91
	Market Research	93
	Existing Program Research and Gap Analysis	95
	Determine Project Feasibility	95
	Establish Realistic Goals and Objectives	96
	Form the Planning Team and Coalition	101
	Encouraging Partners to Join the Planning Team	108
	The Media as a Partner	115
	Drawing Up Partnership Plans	119
	Project Management	120
	Conclusion	124
	References	124
Chapter 4	Step 2—Develop a Campaign Strategy	127
	Introduction	127
	Project Kickoff	127
	The Campaign Strategy	129
	Influential External Variables	138
	Selecting Appropriate Settings, Channels, and Methods	140
	Settings	141
	Channels	143
	Methods	149
	Selecting Communication Channels and Methods	155
	Selecting Spokespeople	161
	Design and Develop Message Content	164
	The Extended Parallel Process Model	166
	The Health Belief Model	168

	Theory of Planned Behavior	169
	Pilot Test and Adjust Materials	172
	Activities and Events Planning	172
	Establishing a Project Timetable	174
	Creating the Comprehensive Communication Plan	174
	Conclusion	175
	References	175
Chapter 5	Campaign Implementation and Evaluation	179
	Introduction	179
	Campaign Launch	179
	The Media	181
	Evaluation	182
	Objectivity in Evaluation	183
	The Justification for Evaluation	184
	Process Evaluation	184
	Experimental and Quasi-Experimental Design	186
	True Experimental Designs	186
	Conclusion	195
	References	196
Chapter 6	Program Support	197
	Introduction	197
	Types of Program Support	200
	Sources of Support	202
	Individual Donors	202
	Business and Corporate Donors	204
	Foundations	207
	Local, State, County, and Federal Government Grants	212
	Religious Organizations	218
	Civic Organizations and Service Clubs	219
	Fee Generation	219
	Partnerships	220
	Implementing a Fundraising Strategy	221

	Fundraising Strategy Factors	222
	Asking for Stuff	225
	Conclusion	228
	References	228
Chapter 7	Emergency Management Public Education Case Studies	231
	Case: Organized Training for Communities	231
	Case: Volunteer Emergency Preparedness Program	232
	Case: Teaching Emergency Preparedness in Schools	233
	Case: Emergency Preparedness in Public Transportation	234
	Case: Public–Private Partnership for Disaster Preparedness	235
	Case: National Public Education Effort	236
	Case: Technology-Based Learning	238
	Case: Local Government Preparedness Campaign	239
	Case: Disaster Preparedness Camp	239
	Case: Community-Wide Disaster Drill	240
	Case: Youth Preparedness	241
	Case: Multi-Stakeholder Preparedness Campaign	242
	Case: Government-Sponsored Business Preparedness Certification Program	243
	Case: Creative Methods and Channels	244
	Case: Using Creative Messaging	245
	Case: Campaign Support	246
	Appendix: Websites and Downloadable Guides Found on the Internet	247
Index		251

Taylor & Francis

Taylor & Francis Group

<http://taylorandfrancis.com>